

WELCOMING WEEK SEPT. 13-22, 2019

UNITING AS A COMMUNITY OF NEIGHBORS STARTS WITH YOU.

- Friday, Sept 13, 6:30pm—7:30pm

Youth African Dance Class by JHP Legacy

Dale Turner Family YMCA, 19290 Aurora Ave. N., Shoreline

Open to the public! Enjoy learning West African dance JHP Legacy, Shoreline-based cultural and performing arts organization. Call Dale Turner Family YMCA 206-363-0446 for more info.

- Saturday, Sept 14, 11:00am—11:45am

Musical Trip Around the World

Shoreline Library, 345 NE 175th St., Shoreline

Discover some rare instruments from other countries and play along by clapping and stamping out rhythms with Miho and Diego. Learn songs from Latin America and Japan! Recommended for ages 5 and older. Sponsored by the Friends of the Shoreline Library and 4Culture.

- Monday, Sept 16– Friday Sept 20, Lobby Hours Open 8:00am—5:00pm

Shoreline Racial History Display

Shoreline City Hall Lobby, 17500 Midvale Ave. N., Shoreline

Learn about the policies and practices that have impacted Shoreline's racial history through a poster display created by Shoreline School District Equity Director Dr. Tanisha Brandon-Felder and Melissa Sargent, English Language Learners Teacher Specialist. Contact Suni Tolton, Diversity and Inclusion Coordinator at 206-801-2256 or stolton@shorelinewa.gov for more info.

- Saturday, Sept 21, 11:00am—2:00pm

Shoreline Fire Department Annual Open House

Shoreline Fire Station, 17525 Aurora Ave. N., Shoreline

Enjoy a hot dog lunch, fire and life safety checkups, and watch firefighters demonstrating rescue skills! Tours of the apparatus and lots of hands-on fun for kids. Bring the whole family! Contact Michelle Pidduck at mpidduck@shorelinefire.com for more info.

- Sunday, Sept 22, 1:15pm—3:45pm

Under Our Skin: Seattle Times Project Conversations About Race

Dale Turner YMCA, 19290 Aurora Ave. N., Shoreline

Open to the public! Discussion on race and inclusion using the Seattle Times "Under Our Skin" video project. Session will focus on the terms: ally, microaggression, and white fragility. For more info., contact Patrick Carr at 206-363-0446 or pcarr@seattleyymca.org for more info. RSVP is not required, but helpful.

The City of Shoreline is committed to ensuring a welcoming, inclusive, and safe community for all.

