Letter

On 06/20/2020 at about 1640hrs while on patrol in Shoreline as 2A0, I responded to what was reported as a hate crime located at [REDACTED] [REDACTED].

This call is related to a call I responded to last week under CAD number K20203380 regarding a "Black Lives Matter" sign that was placed in the yard of O2-Jem Harrison. Harrison had a "Thin Blue Line" flag on the front of her house and reported that someone had placed a sign that said "Black Lives Matter" and "Fuck the police" in her yard.

I contacted 13YO SB1-[REDACTED] and her aunt, O1-Lynnette Jordan and [REDACTED] stepped out of the house holding a couple pieces of paper. [REDACTED] told me that the paper was her "statement" and that it was a letter to the neighborhood. I asked them to tell me what had happened and [REDACTED] began reading off of the paper.

[REDACTED] stated that on 07/14/2020, her neighbor, later identified as Jem, had a "racist" flag out in front of her house, located at [REDACTED] [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] said that she put a "Black Lives Matter" sign in Jem's yard and admits to putting the sign on her property. [REDACTED] stated that the next day, she drew "Black Lives Matter" in chalk in front of Jem's house.

[REDACTED] then stated that she rode her bicycle by Jem's house later and that Jem "stared" at her. [REDACTED] said that she yelled "F the police". [REDACTED] said she went back out later in the evening and put another "Black Lives Matter" sign in front of Jem's house.

[REDACTED] stated that on 07/16/2020 at 0640hrs, she placed another "Black Lives Matter" sign across the street from Jem's house. Then, at about 1430hrs that same day, [REDACTED] states that she made a sign that read "Am I next" and "Defund the police" with red handprints. [REDACTED] stood in the street outside Jem's house with the sign.

[REDACTED] then alleges that another neighbor that lives at [REDACTED] later identified as SB2-Melissa Banker, tried to hit her with her car. [REDACTED] states that Melissa would have hit her if she hadn't moved out of the way. [REDACTED] states that Melissa backed into her driveway and then yelled at her. [REDACTED] alleges that Melissa yelled at her "If you put some Black Lives Matter shit near my house, I'll shoot you".

[REDACTED] then stated that on 07/17/2020 at 0650hrs and on 07/18/2020 at 0530hrs she put "Black Power" signs in front of Melissa's house.

I asked [REDACTED] if she felt that Melissa would carry out the threat and [REDACTED] said "No, but yes". I asked [REDACTED] what "no, but yes" meant. [REDACTED] stated that she didn't think Melissa would shoot her "because of the consequences" but thought that she was mentally unstable.

[REDACTED] and Lynnette gave me a copy of the letter [REDACTED] had written. I advised [REDACTED] and Lynnette that I would document their case and provided them with the case number.

I contacted Melissa at her residence and asked her to tell me her side of the story. Melissa stated that her neighbor, Jem, has been upset over the signs that had been placed in her yard and that it also made her upset because Jem was afraid. Melissa stated that she had driven home and saw [REDACTED] at the end of the neighbor's driveway. Melissa said that she always backs into her driveway and starts by swinging out into the road before backing in and that she was not close to hitting [REDACTED].

Melissa admits to exchanging words with [REDACTED] and said that the things she said were said out of anger. Melissa stated that during this exchange, Melissa mentioned calling the police, to which [REDACTED] allegedly responded with something to the effect of, "Don't call the police, they'll shoot me". Melissa admitted that she told [REDACTED] something along the lines of, "If you creep around my property at night, it's not the police you need to worry about". Melissa added that she made those statements out of "anger and frustration" and that she wouldn't carry out the threat. Melissa stated that she would be willing to speak with [REDACTED] but doesn't know where she lives.

- Facebook Post

On 7-21-2020 at approximately 0703 hours I was dispatched to a neighbor problem at [REDACTED] where MELISSA BANKER wanted to speak with an officer regarding an incident that occurred on 7/16/2020 with 13YO, [REDACTED]. This incident was reported by [REDACTED] and her aunt LYNNETTE JORDAN on 7/20/2020. Reference Deputy Swanson's supplemental report for further details.

On scene, MELISSA summarized the incident for me. She was coming home from work and saw [REDACTED] in the street in front of her neighbor home, [REDACTED]. She saw that she was holding up a "Black Lives Matter" sign. She continued as she normally does and backed her vehicle into her driveway giving plenty of room to [REDACTED]. When she exited the vehicle she went up to [REDACTED] and approximately 10 feet away from her she attempted to talk with [REDACTED] regarding her stances and views on Black Lives Matter. MELISSA stated the conversation became "heated" very quickly and as words were exchanged she became "frustrated and angry" because [REDACTED] wasn't attempting to engage in the conversation. In MELISSA's frustration she asked [REDACTED] "what the fuck is wrong with you?" and told her "if you come on my property you don't need to worry about the police". MELISSA admitted that she was very upset at the time and that her emotions got the better of her. She was upset not only because she was angry about the lack of conversation from [REDACTED] but for her neighbor, Jem, who had been getting harassed by [REDACTED] the past few days because Jem had a "Thin Blue Line" flag in their front yard. MELISSA wanted me to know she doesn't know [REDACTED] doesn't know where she lives and has never interacted with her before.

MELISSA then provided me a letter which was typed by [REDACTED] and overviews the events from 7/14 - 7/18 with both MELISSA's address, [REDACTED] and Jem's address, [REDACTED] with the interactions between her and the two neighbors. This letter is attached to Deputy Swanson's supplemental report. MELISSA wanted to speak me about this letter and mention that she never threatened [REDACTED]. That she never told her she was going to come to her house and that she at her when she spoke with [REDACTED]. MELISSA stated most of the letter that quotes her is incorrect. She wanted to emphasize with me that her intent in talking with [REDACTED] was only to generate conversation. MELISSA was also upset over the remarks in the letter that talked about her almost hitting [REDACTED] with her vehicle. In regards to this, I spoke with another neighbor, MARY PRIGMORE, who informed me that she saw MELISSA coming home and parking her car. She let me know that MELISSA's car was nowhere close to [REDACTED]. PRIGMORE also mentioned that one of the "Black Lives Matter" signs [REDACTED] placed on Jem's yard had written on the back "fuck the police", "oink oink oink" and possibly other negative language regarding law enforcement. PRIGMORE told me a sign was left in front of her house with the front of the sign facing Jem's house saying "Blue Lives Murder".

MELISSA also brought to my attention that a facebook post from [REDACTED] mother, Dawn Jordan, on 7/20/20 regarding the incidents with MELISSA & Jem. Dawn writes "We gathered more information, the threat of lynching and shooting was witnessed by someone and we are reporting it as a hate crime." "Boo is involved with Black Lives Matter - Shoreline and we will be planning a demonstration in the next day or two on our street, to let her neighbors, our neighbors know this is unacceptable." The post continues to outline that Boo or [REDACTED] was able to get her neighbor to remove the blue lives matter flag and states "In the process of this, another neighbor took offense to this long girl's protest. She tried to hit Boo, who was standing in the street with a BLM sign, with her car. She got out and screamed at Boo and said all kinds of weird ridiculous things to her about Boo being racist for saying Black lives don't matter. She attempted to get other neighbors involved. She then threatened to lynch and shoot Boo if she put a sign near her property. She threatened to harm a 13 year old Black girl for saying that HER life matters on her own." The post continues to outline their family's history in the Ridgecrest neighborhood of Shoreline and the spectrum of racism and discrimination they have faced over the years. Dawn continued with "We are planning a peaceful, purposeful, healing, empowering demonstration this Saturday. Details to come as planning is happening right now but we need those in Shoreline committed to anti racism to show up to let the community know racism is unacceptable.

MELISSA was very upset over this post and stated there were no threats of shooting or lynching [REDACTED]. Moreover, she is fearful that due to protests in Seattle and other major cities across the country that her home may be targeted. She has seen an uptick of foot traffic in her neighborhood with people walking by who she is not familiar with since the facebook post went up. I provided MELISSA the option of possibly getting an anti-harassment order because of the grief she was feeling and her sense of safety was of concern. She stated she did not want to do that because that may "escalate" the situation.

MELISSA was able to provide me other facebook posts in reference to the incident and rumors of gatherings/protests in Shoreline this week, possibly around Paramount School Park.

I provided her the case number to this incident. Case for documentation only.

NARRATIVE

On 07/23/2020 at about 1614hrs while on patrol in Shoreline as 2A0, initiated a follow-up by phone call to O-Jem Harrison.

I asked Harrison if she wanted to provide a statement detailing what happened at her property and in the neighborhood. While speaking with me, Harrison would occasionally sound as if she was starting to cry, and would apologize, stating that she was very stressed. Harrison said, "I'm just scared" and stated that she didn't want to "escalate" the situation with her neighbors. Because she didn't want to "escalate" the situation, Harrison was hesitant to provide a statement, but told me that she would think about it and call back if she wanted to provide one.

During our conversation, Harrison stated that she had hung a "thin blue line" flag in honor of the Bothell Police officer who was killed in the line of duty. Harrison said that the "Black Lives Matter" sign appeared in her yard along with one that said "Fuck the police" and "Oink oink". Harrison added that she didn't understand why the signs were appearing on her property.

Harrison stated that signs saying "Black Lives Matter" and "#blackpower" also appeared in her yard. One stating "Blue lives matter murderer" appeared across the street. Harrison added that a "young woman" rode by her house on a bicycle and yelled, "Fuck you!" and other things at her. Harrison said that she later learned that the young woman was 13 years old. Harrison stated that she tried to pursue an order against her, but was unable to do so as she does not know who the young woman is.

End of follow-up.
