

WELCOMING WEEK

BELONGING BEGINS WITH US SEPTEMBER 2021 EVENTS

- Community Hate Crime Reporting Training

Tuesday, Sept. 14, 7pm—8pm

Learn the difference between bias incidents and hate crimes, how cases are prosecuted, and community resources. Presented by: King County Prosecutors Office, Shoreline Police, Chinese Information Service Center, and United Shoreline Organized Against Racism (USOAR).

- Listening to Build Community Workshop

Thursday, Sept. 16, 7pm—8pm

In conjunction with the annual International Day of Listening, learn how to create a listening space, find common ground, and get to know our Shoreline neighbors. Presented by Lori Joubert, past president and current board member of the International Listening Association and Certified Listening Professional.

- Unify Shoreline—Building an Anti-Racist Community

Saturday, Sept. 18, 10am—11am

Local racial equity consultants Kevin Henry and Jolene Jang will discuss the meaning and impact of being "anti-racist" and what you can do as a neighbor, parent, or business owner to make Shoreline a welcoming place for all.

- Stop Anti-Asian Hate Workshop

Saturday, Sept. 25, 10am—11am

There has been a rise of reports of assaults, hate crimes, and bias incidents against Asians locally and nationally. Learn more about what you can do to build inclusive, safer communities. Presented by Jolene Jang, culture explorer and grassroots #StopAsianHate advocate.

All events are online via zoom. To RSVP and receive zoom link, please email welcomingplace@shorelinewa.gov.

The City of Shoreline is committed to building a welcoming, inclusive, anti-racist, and safe community for all.
