Highlights: CIU is currently taking on more fraud cases, in particular elder fraud cases. The most notable case CIU Detective Monserud was able to recover $200,000.00 for one victim. The case has garnered national interest as the suspects were involved in similar scams across the nation. The FBI has taken an interest in combining these cases as there may be millions of dollars involved and have taken over the greater investigation. There was a slight uptick in commercial burglaries and auto thefts. We also assisted our gun compliance unit with an emergency ERPO order to keep several firearms being released back to their owner who is experiencing mental health issues.
